Vienna, March 6.

SOME Days ago the Emperour gave, with great Ceremony, in the Pope's Name, the red Caps to the Cardinals Georgio Spinola the Nuncio at this Court, and Count Michael Frederick d'Althan Biſhop of Vaccia. Both Cardinals went in the Morning to Court with a ſplendid Equipage and Retinue. Cardinal Spinola had three Coaches drawn by ſix Horſes, and another Coach with two Horſes. Count Althan had likewiſe three Coaches drawn by ſix Horſes, which were followed by four more drawn by two Horſes each. Their Eminencies were in Purple, and their Servants in rich Liveries. They attended his Imperial Majeſty from the Palace to the Church of the bare-footed Auguſtin Friars, where the Ceremony was performed in the following Manner; Count Collonitz, Prince-Biſhop of this City, ſaid Maſs in his Pontificalia, after which Sig. Spinelli and Sig. Valenti Gonzaga, Gentlemen of the Pope's Bed Chamber, whom he had ſent hither with the Caps for the two Cardinals, took each a Gilt Silver Baſon which were placed on a ſmall Table ſtanding between the Imperial Throne and the Desk behind which the Cardinals ſate, in which Baſons were the Pope's Letters tranſmitted hither on this Occaſion, and preſented them to the Emperour who ordered them to be read aloud: This done they took each another Baſon in which were the red Caps, and the Cardinals one after the other approached the Throne, where the Emperour holding his own Hat with the Left Hand, with the Right put the Cap on the Cardinal's Head, covering himſelf at the ſame time. The Ceremony was concluded with ſinging Te Deum, after which the Cardinals attended the Emperour to Court, where they appeared in his Majeſty's Preſence during his Dinner with their red Hats on; from thence they went to a ſplendid Entertainment provided for them by Count Michael John d'Althan Counſellour of State and Maſter of the Horſe to the Emperour. The Emperour has appointed Count Waldſtein, Provincial Marſhal of the Kingdom of Bohemia, in the Room of Count Gallas late Viceroy of Naples. On the 28th paſt arrived here from Sicily Admiral Byng's Son, as alſo an Imperial Lieutenant Collonel, who brought an Account of the State of Affairs in that Iſland. On the 29th the Court received Advice from the Hague, that the Marqueſs Beretri Landi had ſigned the Inſtrument of the King of Spain's accepting the Conditions contained in the Treaty of Quadruple Alliance, and in the Evening the Emperour was complimented on that Occaſion by the Nobility and the foreign Miniſters. The Marqueſs de Breil, ſent to this Court by the King of Sardinia in the Room of the Marqueſs de St. Thomas, forbears appearing in publick till he has notified his Arrival to the foreign Miniſters. Don Marino Franceſco Caracciola, Prince of Avellino, Hereditary Chancellour of the Kingdom of Naples, died here on the 19th paſt in the 52d Year of his Age.

Lisbon, March 10. The new Cardinal Pereyra arrived here from Algarve ſome Days ago, and is preparing for his Voyage to Rome, where he is to reſide as Miniſter of this Crown. The Britiſh Men of War Durſley-Galley and Enterprize are now cruiſing from Cape Finiſterre along the Coaſt of Galicia and Portugal, and Commadore Cavendiſh has ſent the Tartar and Sheerneſs to cruiſe to the Northward. The Dover and Advice are refitting in this Harbour: The Antelope is ſailed for England. The Dragon Man of War is ſailed for Minorca. By a Ship that came from Cadiz the 25th paſt N. S. we are informed, that three Men of War, one of 74 Guns, another of 62, and a third of 25, were ſailed from thence, having with them five Spaniſh India Ships, not laden as Merchantmen, but as Tranſports with Arms and Ammunition, and that a Draught of 20 Men out of each Company of that Garriſon, amounting in all to 1200 Men, were imbarked on thoſe Ships, with Proviſions for ſix Months. The Deſign they are gone upon was not publickly known, but it was ſuppoſed they are bound for the Weſt-Indies.
